

22 St Ann's Square
 Manchester
 11 March 1847

My Dear Friend I strike me that I forgot to tell you in the hasty lines which I wrote you from London - at what place you might send an answer, I write now to say I shall be happy to have a line from you at Carlisle Care of
 J. D. Carr. Edin Bank.
 I should like much to know if I can have a meeting in Darlington in the 23^d March it will be my only opportunity.

I do feel that I ought not to leave this country without a fair opportunity for making the people of Dartington somewhat better acquainted with the merits of our great enterprise. - than the limited period
of my last meeting would allow. Since I wrote you, I have had a very good meeting Finchbury Chapel London
one in Colchester - one in Nottingham - and one

Wilmington, I shall leave here for Carlisle on Saturday and reach there on Saturday night. Please write in great haste.
Yours Always
Frederick Douglass
